Client Money (as an agent of an insurer)

We act as agents for the Insurer for the collection of premiums and payment of claims and refunds of premiums. This means that premiums are treated as being received by the Insurer when received in our bank account and that any claims or premium refund is treated as received by you when it is actually paid over to you.

Charges

In addition to premiums charged by insurers we make the following charges:

Duplicate Documents – Post.	£5.00
Email version.	Free
All mid-term adjustments	£5.00
Cancellation of the policy within the first 14 days of receipt of the policy documents.	Providing there has not been a claim for the death/loss of your pet and the schedule of insurance has been returned to us a full refund will be made if you decide to cancel the policy within the first 14 days of the policy.
Cancellation of the policy after the first 14 days of receipt of the policy documents.	Your policy is a contract for twelve months. If your insurance is cancelled for any reason after the first 14 days, a pro-rata charge will be made as well as a £5.00 administration charge. There will be no return of premium if a claim has been reported during the current year of insurance.
If we need to re apply for your monthly payments	£5.00

Renewal

If you pay your premium by instalments your policy will automatically renew on an annual basis for your convenience. This will be confirmed by us sending to you your renewal documents detailing the premium payable and the terms and conditions applicable for the renewed policy. If you do not wish your policy to renew on the annual review date, you should return to us the schedule of insurance and cancel your direct debit or continuous credit card mandate.

Your Duty to Disclose

It is important that all information you give us verbally or in writing in proposing for, renewing or making changes to your insurance or making a claim is full and correct; and that you tell us about changes such as address and pet details. Failure to do so could later invalidate your policy or claims made under it, or result in an increased premium or additional terms.

Fraud Prevention and detection

In order to prevent and detect fraud we may at any time:

- Share information about you with other organisations and public bodies including the Police;
- Check and/or file your details with fraud prevention agencies and databases, and if you give us false or inaccurate information and we suspect fraud, we will record this.

We or other organisations may also search these agencies and databases to:

- Help make decisions about the provision and administration of insurance, credit and related services for you and members of your household;
- Trace debtors or beneficiaries, recover debt, prevent fraud and to manage your accounts or insurance policies;
- Check your identity to prevent money laundering, unless you furnish us with other satisfactory proof of identity;
- Undertake credit searches and additional fraud searches.

Data Protection

For Data Protection Act purposes, Ultimate Pet Partners Limited is the data controller. We will hold and process your personal data for insurance administration and marketing. For this purpose the information may also be passed to selected third parties, insurers and re-insurers, any may also be processed outside the EEA.

You understand that all personal data you supply must be accurate.

If you would like any other person to discuss your policy or make amendments then we must have your written permission.

UPP likes to keep you up to date about its own products and services and those of other companies, which might be of interest to you. However, if you prefer not to be kept informed, please tick this box and return this letter to green@ultimateservices.co.uk or the address at the bottom of the page.

Law applicable to this policy

You and we are free to choose the law applicable to this contract, but in the absence of agreement to the contrary the law of the country in which you are resident at the time of the contract will apply. If you are not resident in the United Kingdom, the law that will apply will be the law of England and Wales.

Financial Services Compensation Scheme ('FSCS')
